THE WEEK THAT WAS

NAIDOC Activities

What a day! On Wednesday 24 July, students from Tharbogang and Binya Public Schools joined us for NAIDOC Week activities. Johnny Huckle performed 'The Wombat Wobble', we played Indigenous games, weaved friendship bracelets, made and cooked Johnny Cakes, created sand art and dot paintings. We became more aware and embraced Aboriginal culture. We loved the kangaroo bolognaise too, it was so delicious and nutritious. A huge thank you to the staff from GAMS who again came and taught us at each activity.

Rankin's Springs Round Robin

On Friday 16th July, 2019, we went out to Rankin's Springs for their annual Round Robin day. We joined other small schools and played tabloid games, soccer and netball. It was a lovely, warm winters day with our new and old friends and thanks to their schools P & C, we had delicious lunch orders too. Rankin's Spring PS won the day for the first time ever with Binya PS coming second. Thank you to the parents that came along to support our students and special thanks to Beck Wigg and Jodi Sayers for helping Mrs Campbell with the scoring and substitutions in soccer and netball.

National Tree Planting Day

A massive thank you to Owen Toyota for making our National Tree Planting day a massive success! We planted 18 native Australian shrubs in our bushland garden and it already looks spectacular. Thank you to Sarah Taylor and Madi for their help and guidance in planting the natives in our garden. Sarah sent a lovely message to our school after the tree planting, "It was such a pleasure meeting you and your lovely school community today. Madi and I had such a nice time getting out in the sun and spending time with your bubbly students."

Life Education Van Visit

The whole school, including our Yoogali Young Starters, visited the Life Education Van on Wednesday 31st July, 2019. Every child loved their visit and learned a range of health topics. Thank you to the P&C for heavily subsidising each student and Fiona for coming to Yoogali PS and bringing Harold.
